

Henning Glaser is the Founding Director of the German-Southeast Asian Center of Excellence for Public Policy and Good Governance (CPG) and Executive Director and chairman of the board of directors of the Asian Governance Foundation (AGF). He teaches German-, comparative- and Thai public law at the Faculty of Law of Thammasat University, where CPG is located. His research areas cover, among others, comparative public law and politics, constitutional law, global governance and geopolitics. He regularly serves as a consultant to governmental and nongovernmental agencies in Europe, America, and Asia in various fields of law and governance. Sourcing from his immense knowledge and experience within Asia and Constitutional Law, Mr. Glaser will give three distinct lectures on “The constitutional moment: The Foundation of the German Constitution in 1949 and its historical conditions”, “Identity & Basic structure of the German Constitution” and “Outlook: Our Constitution’s Tomorrow – Major Challenges and How to Respond”.
